FLAMBOYANT FLORALS

SEPTEMBER 7 & 8, 2024

9:00 AM TO 3:00 PM BOTH DAYS

$400 PER PERSON (MATERIALS NOT INCLUDED)

TUTOR: ALI GILLETT.

I've always loved the movement, colour and linear nature of graffiti as well as the simplified and abstracted form that illustration provides. I'm also somewhat jealous of the freedom that small children have when they're playing and having fun... And the marriage of all of those aspects is what 'Flamboyant Florals' is AALLLLL about!

Over the course of this two day workshop I'm going to take you through the step-by-step process of creating one of these vibrating florals so that you can have one of your very own to hang on a wall.

I started working with florals not because they're easy, but because I found them so dang hard, each flower is it's own portrait! Because I found it so difficult I had to develop a few little tips and tricks to take away the complexity of it all and imbue my canvas with the fun and frolicking nature of a field of flowers.

We had so much FUN at last years workshop and I genuinely can't wait to do it all again!

We begin on day 1 by embracing the crazy toddler living in all of us by throwing paint wildly at our canvases, the less thought the better!

Then, we will draw, paint in our values, and get started on pulling out the beauty in our pieces, marrying the layers together through glazing and experimentation.

If you are an artist who struggles to let loose, is scared to try new materials and mediums, or simply wants to have a superbly fun weekend, I highly recommend you come along!
